

4-H Youth Leadership 20____

It is important to see yourself as a 4-H youth leader. Every 4-H member has had at least one leadership experience this 4-H year! Use the list below or add your own experience in the space provided. Then use the questions below (or the questions provided on page 13 of the 4-H Record Guidelines) to reflect on youth leadership experiences this year.

Youth Leadership Experiences	Date Completed
Mentored/taught a younger youth (counselor or other role)
Lead a 4-H club meeting (officer or other role)
Teach a project/activity meeting
Help with a service-learning, fundraiser or other event
Plan a meeting or activity
Attend 4-H Youth Council meeting
Chaired or served on a committee
Give a demonstration or illustrated talk
Promoted 4-H or 4-H project work at fair or other event
Other:

Myself as a youth leader: (Explain how you were a leader during your 4-H year, what and how you led, and how you see yourself as a leader in one or more ways.)

These were the results of my youth leadership experiences: (Reflect on what you did, who benefited from your leadership, what others learned, and most importantly what you learned.)

My strengths and weaknesses as a leader are: (Explain leadership skills that are strengths of yours and others that are challenging for you.)

I think these skills are important for effective youth leadership: (Tell about skills or knowledge that good leaders exhibit and how you work to illustrate those qualities.)

Next year I plan to develop these youth leadership skills by engaging in these experiences: (Write about skills you would like to develop and experiences you would like to try next year.)
